More about this raging lunatic on the following page ►

On 17APR2015, he wrote on sourceforge.net: My name is Mr. Imad Almaghary. I am male, married and have kids. I was born in Libya in 1977. I live in Palestine. I have been working in translation and management field for 15 years. I have been doing study and research on this business for a long time with a very good experience which I would be more than happy to share with you.

Did you notice? 15 years of experience (in 2015...) in "translation and management field".

Well, on 16APR2017, our "highly experienced English Arabic translator and project manager" asks this in LinkedIn:

Not bad for a "Business Consultant"... However, 2 months before (February 2017), he had announced his price...

But, around the same time, our "Business Consultant" had another very "senior" question:

Here is what our "Business Consultant" (with 15 years of experience, in 2015) responded to one of his responders:

And, even NOT knowing the going fees for his own language or how to deal with end clients doesn't prevent this lunatic from selling e-books (with secrets, strategies, profits overnight, charts and even bonus...):

And, because his scamming business may not going very well, he's now offering his new business: «15 % discount for all of your electricity, power and transportation fines.» Whatever that means...
