

TSD INFO BULLETIN

by the TRANSLATOR SCAMMERS INTELLIGENCE GROUP

www.translator-scammers.com • translator.scammers@gmail.com • @tsdirectory

Bulletin no.: TSD/04/2014

Date issued: 16 AUG 2014 • Revision: 16 AUG 2014

Circulation: Worldwide

Special instructions: Sharing of this bulletin is appreciated

SEARCHING FOR SCAMMERS ONLINE

Our TRANSLATOR SCAMMERS DIRECTORY is now the definitive online repository for translators' CV scammers and translator impersonators, and all there is associated with them: names (real and aliases), email addresses, phone numbers, addresses, fake translation "companies" and associations among them.

NOTE: On our Directory, the names used by the scammers are listed on the 1st column (red header), and these can be the real names of the impersonated translators/victims of the scam.

With this Bulletin, the Translator Scammers Intelligence Group aims to provide some insight about the best ways to improve your search for scammers online:

1. USING SEARCH ENGINES (GOOGLE, BING, ETC.)

Write your search string (the image shows the search for a name) with opening and closing quotes (quotation marks, ") and follow it with the words *translator scammers:

To look for email addresses, there is NO NEED to use quotes:

2. USING THE SEARCH ENGINE ON OUR WEBSITE (Powered by Google)

Write your search string WITHOUT quotes, even when looking for names, on the search box available at the bottom of every page of our website:

Search Our Website
In the search box below, use quotes to improve your search of names, e.g. "Agatha Colten".
To search for email addresses, there is NO need to use quotes, e.g. alexander.b.ackerman@gmail.com
In Google, write your search string (normally a name or email) with quotes (with names) and follow it with the words "translator scammers": "Andrew Wright" translator scammers
<input type="text" value="albert.andor@outlook.sa"/>	<input type="submit" value="Q"/>

THE TRANSLATOR SCAMMERS INTELLIGENCE GROUP • www.translator-scammers.com

Follow us on Twitter: <https://twitter.com/tsdirectory>